The specific objectives and purposes of this ministry shall be to promote the teachings of, and publish materials of and concerning Jesus Christ, and to demonstrate the love of Jesus by the witnessing and meeting the practical, everyday needs of the saved and unsaved. The promotion of His teachings and operation according to His precepts will include:

1) A website (www.eagle-eye-ministries.com) which will enable believers in Jesus Christ to view or print Bible-studies, listen to audio messages or view video sermons, and view or print excerpts from books produced by the ministry.

2) A radio, television or Internet broadcast of biblically-based messages which will enable people who cannot attend our services to receive the revelation of what God has revealed to us.

3) The production of written teachings, workbooks, newsletters, books and other materials to be published and distributed in churches, directly to the website, broadcast audience and Christian bookstores.

4) Preaching and teaching engagements at churches, prisons, nursing homes and other locations. This will include mentoring of teachers and other church leadership, and discipleship of laypersons in settings such as weekly Bible-study meetings, workshops, seminars, and curriculum-led courses. Leadership training includes:

a) Recognizing, equipping and motivating 5-fold officers as stated in Ephesians 4:11-12

b) Grooming leaders who are capable of standing before legal, educational, scientific, professional, social and Christian communities or opposition without compromise, shame and with accuracy in biblical knowledge through submission to the Holy Spirit and exceptional grasp of scripture (Acts 6:8-15).

c) Duplication of like-minded disciples according to strict adherence to the word of God

d) Providing wise counsel to individuals who are dealing with problems or facing major decisions in their lives

Meeting the needs of missions/people includes:

1) Charitable giving to meet needs for utilities, food, clothing, shelter, medicines, etc.

2) Disbursement of funds to free Christians slaves or persons jailed for their faith, people in need of relocation (Jews to Israel, Lost Boys of the Sudan, etc.), and other needs to combat oppression of persecuted saints

3) Disbursement of funds to provide shelter, wells for water, hospitals, food, clothing, blankets, medicines, etc. to needy individuals worldwide (due to oppression, war, environmental, political or socioeconomic conditions, etc.)

4) Disbursement of funds to provide education, food and safe shelter for neglected children worldwide (La Casa Alianza, etc.)

5) Distribution of media (Bibles, CDs) to promote the gospel overseas

6) Eventual sponsorship or adoption of children to come study in the United States

Future objectives:

1) Ministry center to provide local spiritual enrichment courses, real world job skills, educational tutoring and enrichment, etc.

2) Leadership and ministerial training

3) Launching of other pastors/leaders into their own ministries or to bless other ministries in need of mature assistance (body ministry)

4) Broadcast ministry center, webcasting, podcasting or broadcasting via Internet

5) "School of the prophets" to ensure that five-fold officers, especially prophets, are walking in Spirit and in truth in regard to their submission to God, spiritual gifts, motives, etc.
